SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

Monday, May 5*th*, 1746. [Numb. 632]

Mr. Timothy,

MR Whitefield having deſerted his Appeal from the Lord Biſhop of London's Commiſſary in South Carolina, and being thereupon proceeded againſt and ſuſpended from the Miniſterial Office in the Church of England, by the ſaid Commiſſary, has been at Pains, ever ſince his laſt Appearance in America, to inſinuate every where, that his not proſecuting his ſaid Appeal was not owing to any Fault or Neglect in him, but to the Lords Appellees Contempt of the ſaid Commiſſary's Proceedings againſt him; and much boaſted of certain Affidavits he had in his Pocket, (and hitherto has kept there) which clear'd him from all Blame in that Affair. With much ado thoſe Affidavits are at laſt produced, and recorded in the Secretary's Office here, and if you'll be ſo good as to publiſh the atteſted Copy of them, with the Remarks incloſed, in your next Gazette, you'll certainly aſſiſt in undeceiving a Number of People, oblige many of your Readers, and in particular,

April 30th, 1746. Your humble Servant, &c.

TO all to whom theſe Preſents ſhall come, I Sir Robert Weſtley, Knight, Lord Mayor of the City of London, in Purſuance of an Act of Parliament, made in the 8th Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord King GEORGE the Second, intituled, an Act for the more eaſy Recovery of Debts in his Majeſty's Plantations and Colonies in America, Do hereby certifie, that on the Day of the Date hereof, perſonally came and appeared before me, George Whitefield of London Clerk, and Joſhua Sharpe of Lincoln's-Inn in the County of Middleſex Gentleman, being Perſons well known and worthy of good Credit, and by ſolemn Oath, which they then ſeverally took before me, upon the Holy Evangeliſts of Almighty God, did ſolemnly and ſincerely declare, teſtify, and depoſe to be true, the ſeveral Matters and Things mentioned and contained in the original Affidavit hereunto annexed.

In Teſtimony and Faith whereof, I the ſaid Lord Mayor, have cauſed the Seal of the Office of Mayoralty of the ſaid City of London, to be hereunto put and affixed. Dated in London, the 25*th Day of* May, in the Year of our Lord 1744

(Seal.)

M A N.

LONDON, to wit.

GEORGE WHITEFIELD of London, Clerk, and Joſhua Sharpe of Lincoln's Inn in the County of Middleſex, Gentleman, ſeverally make Oath and ſay; and firſt this Deponent George Whitefield for himſelf ſaith, that he being in the Province of South Carolina in America, did, on the 19th Day of July in the Year of our Lord 1740, interpoſe an Appeal there to the Lords Commiſſioners appointed by his Majeſty for receiving and hearing Appeals in ſpiritual Cauſes from his Majeſty's Plantations in America, from an Interlocutary Decree, pronounced on the 17th Day of the ſaid Month of July, by Alexander Garden Commiſſary of the Right Reverend Father in God Edmund, by Divine Permiſſion Lord Biſhop of London, conſtituted to exerciſe Juriſdiction, Spiritual and Eccleſiaſtical, within the Provinces of South and North Carolina, and the Iſland of Providence in America. And this Deponent George Whitefield ſaith, that he did in the ſaid Month of July, take out a Copy of the Proceedings in the ſaid Cauſe, before the ſaid Commiſſary, under the Seal of the ſaid Court, and ſoon after ſent over the ſame to England with Directions for the Proſecution of the ſaid Appeal before the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners. And this Deponent in the Month of January following departed from the aforeſaid Province of South-Carolina, and ſailed for England, where this Deponent arrived in the Month of March following. And this Deponent George Whitefield found, after the beſt Enquiry he could make in order to proſecute his ſaid Appeal before their Lordſhips, that there had never been any Meeting of the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners for the receiving or hearing any Appeals, nor had they ever acted under their Commiſſion, however this Deponent did by himſelf and by others apply, and cauſed Application to be made to ſeveral of the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners, to obtain a Meeting of their Lordſhips for receiving and hearing the ſaid Appeal. And this Deponent George Whitefield ſaith, he did uſe his beſt and utmoſt Endeavour to have proſecuted the ſaid Appeal; but this Deponent George Whitefield ſaith, he could not, nor has he after frequent and repeated Applications, been able to obtain any Meeting of the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners for the receiving or hearing his ſaid Appeal, and which has therefore rendered it impoſſible for this Deponent to proſecute his ſaid Appeal. And this Deponent Joſhua Sharpe for himſelf ſaith, that he was applied to by the ſaid George Whitefield, to ſolicite and proſecute his ſaid Appeal before the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners, and this Deponent did uſe his beſt Endeavours at the Requeſt and for, and on the Behalf of the ſaid George Whitefield, to get a Meeting of the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners for the receiving and hearing the ſaid Appeal, and in particular this Deponent did apply himſelf to the firſt of the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners in the Commiſſion named, and did procure ſeveral other of the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners to be applied to for that Purpoſe, but could not obtain any Meeting of their Lordſhips, which put it out of the Power of the ſaid George Whitefield to proſecute his ſaid Appeal.

Both ſworn this 25*th Day of* May, 1744, before me, George Whitefield.
ROBERT WESTLEY Mayor. Joſhua Sharpe.

Recorded, the 24th of April, 1746.

SECRETARY's Office in Charles Town, South Carolina. The above and foregoing is a true Copy, taken from the Book of Records mark'd FF, Fol. 421 and 472, remaining in this Office. Examin'd by me this 28*th Day of* April, 1746

JOHN CHAMPNEYS, Deputy Secretary.

REMARKS on the above Affidavits.

I. BY the Lord Mayor of London's Atteſtation it appears, that the above Affidavits were taken before him, by Virtue of an Act of Parliament of Great Britain, for the Recovery of Debts due in America: But as the ſaid Affidavits ſay nothing of any Debts due in America, how they tend to the Recovery of any ſuch Debts, or whether his Lordſhip had any Authority to take the above Affidavits under Colour of that Act, the Gentlemen of the Law muſt determine. But,

II. The main End it ſeems of theſe Affidavits, as given out before they publickly appeared, is to vindicate Mr. Whitefield from the Charge of neglecting to proſecute his Appeal in due Time, and purſuant to the Oath he had taken. But, alas! as they now appear, it is but too manifeſt, that they can anſwer no ſuch End. — Mr Whitefield made Oath in open Court here before the Commiſſary, the 19th of July 1740, "That he would "have

" bona Fide profecute the Appeal then by him interpos'd, and " return an authentic Certificate of the Profecution of the ſame " into the Court here, within the Space of Twelve Months from " that Date." — Did he comply with this Oath? No. Do the Affidavits clear up the Matter, by ſhewing it was not in his Powe.? No ſuch Thing. They are defective for this Purpoſe, in two the main and moſt eſſential Particulars, viz. The proper Manner of Application to the Lords of Appeal, and the Time when. They indeed ſet forth and affirm, that ſeveral Applications were made by Himſelf and Agent to the ſaid Lords for a Hearing. But was this a proper Manner of Application to them? No. He ought to have applied by praćtiſing Counſel, his Counſel learned in the Law, who knew how to apply and proceed in all ſuch Caſes. But ſuppoſing the Applications affirm'd had been proper; do the Affidavits ſet forth and affirm, that thoſe Applications were made in due Time, i.e. within the Vacatory Term? Not a Word of this Matter. The Dates throughout are carefully avoided. So that for ought that appears from the Affidavits, the Applications which they affirm, might have been made in April or May 1744, almoſt Three Years after the Vacatory Term was expired, and when the Cauſe did not lie before their Lordſhips; and conſequently Mr. Whitefield could have no Hearing upon it. Upon the whole, as it neither appears from the Affidavits that Application was made to the Lords of Appeal in a proper Manner, by Counſel learned in the Law, as it ought to have been; nor whether the Applications ſtiled were made within the Vacatory Term, or after the ſame was expired; it is plain, that they are therefore of no Signification or Validity, for the End or Purpoſe above mentioned.

LONDON, January 25.

HIS Majeſty's Ship the Edinburgh, Capt. Coates, has taken and brought into Plymouth, the Duke de Chartres, a French Privateer of 32 Guns, and 277 Men.

The Edinburgh, has alſo retaken the Montroſe, Gregory, from St. Kitts bound to London.

Jan. 27. His Excellency the Earl of Hyndford, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter at the Court of Peterſburgh, having demanded in Form the Succours ſtipulated by the late Treaties with that Court, the Czarina was pleaſed to declare, that they ſhould be furniſhed without Delay, and directed that her Intention in this Reſpect ſhould be particularly notified to Mr. D'Allion, the French Miniſter Reſident there, which was accordingly done.

Feb. 4. While the common Enemy is endeavouring to temporize with the States General, by publiſhing Modifications of the late Arret, it is thought their High Mightineſſes have at laſt reſolved to act with Vigour, and that Count Waſſenaer de Twickel is gone to Verſailles for a Categorical Anſwer, to certain Points, in Conſequence of Meaſures concerted during the Reſidence of Baron Bentinck at London.

There is again ſome Rumour, that the Prince of Orange will be at laſt declared Stadtholder of all the United Provinces, thro' the Influence of two great Proteſtant Powers, to both whom he is nearly related.

Feb. 6. Admiral Warren has ſent over from Cape Breton, Orders to buy a Service of Sne wrought Plate, to be made in the moſt elegant Manner, to preſent to General Pepperell, for his great Services in the Reduction of that important Place.

IT was the Day after the Battle of Falkirk, that the Rebels ſet forward for Stirling, and attempted to ſcale the Caſtle: General Blakeney order'd all his Men out of Sight at their firſt Attack, having plaited nine Cannon (nine Pounders) loaded with Grape Shot, for their better Reception, and his Muſqueteers ſtarting themſelves at the ſame Time, 'tis aſſured the Rebels left above a thouſand Men in this Enterprize. Their Leaders demanded a Ceſſation of the Governor, that they might bury their Dead; but it was refus'd them.

Feb. 8. The Government has ordered a Battery to be erected in every Town on the Sea Coaſt, from Hull in Yorkſhire, to Portſmouth in Hampſhire, as a Security from any Foreign Invaſion.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. North in his Majeſty's Ship the Prince Frederick, on the 7th Inſtant, took a French Privateer, belonging to St. Malo's call'd La Fortune, of 22 Guns and 180 Men.

Letter from Deal, Feb. 8.

" Capt. Beazley, in the Eagle Privateer, of Dover, has brought in a French Fiſhing Veſſel, bound to St. Valeries; the Maſter of which informs, that he met with 40 Sail of ſmall Tranſports, eſcorted by Boulogne, bound to Dieppe, but had no Men on board, except thoſe neceſſary to work the Veſſels.

" We are juſt now inform'd, that Capt. Beazley drove 14 of " the above mentioned Tranſports on Shore."

We hear that the Lord Lewis Gordon, who has been vigorous in raiſing large Sums of Money, under Pain of Military Execution, from the poor People of Scotland; upon his being applied to by the Pretender's Receivers, for the Caſh, declar'd he would only pay a part of it for the preſent, and when their Cauſe had a better Face, he would deliver up the Remainder; for it was now high Time to look a little for himſelf. — It is ſaid he has collected together nigh 30,000 l.

It is now expected, that certain Trials, which have been for ſome Time intended, will go on without a Shrew, and that ſeveral dark Paſſages in our modern Annals will be clear'd up. — Heavens grant that we may not again be diſappointed!

Feb. 13. We are aſſured from Edinburgh, that the Rebels ſent a Meſſenger to the Duke to crave Mercy, to which his Royal Highneſs reply'd, 'That they might expect all the Mercy 'that perfidious Rebels, and Diſturbers of the Peace of their 'Country, deſerved.'

A WEEK'S WORK.

SCARCE had the joyful News of Falkirk's Day
To Britain's ſacred Monarch wing'd its Way,
When the young Hero mounts the rapid Car,
To ſave his Country, or her Fate to ſhare.
Intent on this, he ev'ry Left deſies,
The rigid Journey, and more rigid Skies;
And, what with Wonder lateſt Times ſhall hear,
Rais'd Stirling's Siege before we thought him there.

Edinburgh, Feb. 7. Laſt Night above 60 Priſoners came under a ſtrong Eſcorte, and are confin'd here, amongſt theſe is the celebrated Miſs Jenny Cameron, with ſeveral young Gentlemen that have been detain'd ſince the Beginning of the Rebellion in Stirling Caſtle.

CHARLES TOWN, May 5.

On Tueſday laſt his Majeſty's Ship Aldborough, commanded by Capt. Peter Robertſon, return'd into this Harbour, and is refitting with all poſſible Expedition for another Cruize.

The next Day a Spaniſh Privateer Schooner came in Sight, and took the Snow Lilly's Prize, Captain William Andrew, of and from Glaſgow for this Port, who fought her 'till he was boarded, then ſtruck and was carried off; but, as they have had a head Wind ever ſince, and the Government's Galley, commanded by Capt. Braddock, has been ſent in Purſuit of them, we hope to have the Pleaſure of ſeeing them ſoon brought in.

Two Veſſels, that arriv'd here on Wedneſday and Thurſday, ſaw the Privateer and Prize a little Way to the Southward of this Bar.

On Thurſday laſt arrived here the St. Criſpin Privateer, a large Spaniſh Sloop, taken on April 2d, in her Paſſage from the Havanna to La Vera Cruz, by the Privateers Ship Mercury of this Port, and Snow Cruizer of Philadelphia, commanded by the Captains Lampree and Clymer; ſhe had 40 Men, but they eſcap'd on ſhore, except two. Captain Lampree had before taken a ſmall Sloop, which he ſunk, after taking out her Cargo, which conſiſts of 136 Jars of Oyl, 83 Reams of Paper, 6 Bales of Garlix, &c.

Capt. Clymer, who cruiz'd in Concert with Lampree, was taken by two Spaniſh Xabeques, a Snow and Sloop; Lampree was chas'd by the ſame Veſſels, but ſailing exceeding well, left them at Pleaſure.
